VOL. XVIII.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, MAY 1, 1896.

NO. 33

Good News!

About a year ago we gave notice that leather had advanced and that we would advance the prices on our shoes rather than cheapen the quality. We DID advance the prices and told our customers the facts instead of trying to conceal them.

Leather has declined!

Not to the full extent of the advance but enough to justify us in putting all shoes down to the lowest prices at which we sold them when leather was at its lowest point. This means a saving 25c a pair on men's cheap and medium shoes.

Special!

100 pairs fine Kid Button Shoes with heels, all 1's; original price $1.50 to $4.50; for 50c.

STATE CONVENTIONS.

SEVERAL STATES ELECT THEIR NATIONAL DELEGATES.

Michigan's Delegation Divided—Mississippi For Silver and Pennsylvania For Gold and Patterson.

The Mississippi State Democratic Convention met at Jackson Wednesday and selected a solid free-silver delegation to Chicago. The delegates were instructed for E. C. Wallthall for Vice President.

The Illinois Republican State Convention met Wednesday and nominated John R. Tanner for Governor, and adjourned until yesterday without instructing the delegates at large to the National Convention. The contest between Cullom and McKinley was left in doubt.

Robt. E. Pattison was endorsed for President by the Pennsylvania Democratic convention, on a goldbug platform that beats anything John Sherman ever uttered.

The delegates were instructed to vote as a unit. This was done to the hands of the few silver men who got on the delegation.

The bond money crowd captured the Michigan Democratic convention by the narrow margin of 58, with the assistance of a chairman who enforced the unit rule in several counties with divided delegations. The four delegates at large are bond money men, but the silver men secured nine of the district delegates. The platform was an endorsement of the Cleveland administration, the vote being very close.

The Tennessee Prohibition convention met at Nashville, and after tabling a free-silver resolution nominated Joseph Hopwood for Governor.

The scenes at the Republican State Convention of Georgia, were almost riotous. Buck, the McKinley leader, made a deal with the Reed faction, allowing them one colored delegate. The other negroes bolted at this, and named Buck and three negroes as delegates.

The bolters representing a small minority of the Democratic party in Nebraska held a side-show convention this week and endorsed Cleveland and denounced the regular Democrats as "Populists."

Vermont Republicans declared for McKinley, but out of respect to Reed the New England candidate, did not instruct the delegates.

Army Worms Eating the Wheat.

The destructive worm known as the "army worm" has made its appearance and is already causing serious apprehension among the farmers. Mr. M. A. Mason, of The Square, one of the largest wheat growers in the county, says they have appeared in his fields by the million and are stripping the young stalks of their foliage. The wheat is not yet headed out, and there is danger that the bud and all may be destroyed. When the head has formed, the worms do not injure the plant by eating the leaves. The army worm is a small worm with white stripes on its back and derives its name from the fact that they travel in masses and move from one field to another in search of fresh pastures. They were here last about four years ago, but as they came much later in the season no harm was done. Mr. Mason says they are also troubling his neighbors and the presumption is that they are all over the county.

School Election To-morrow.

An election will be held at the City Court room to-morrow, from 7 a. m. to 9 p. m. to choose two trustees for the Hopkinsville Public Schools for a term of three years. The retiring trustees are Messrs. J. E. McPherson and Ira L. Smith, who will probably be re-elected without opposition.

The following officers will conduct the election: Geo. Bradley and E. H. Price, judges; S. H. Harrison, sheriff; C. E. Kennedy, clerk.

Only white people will vote, including widows who have children in the schools.

Knocked Him Silly.

A young man named Ellis Brumme, of Bennettstown, was struck on the head last Sunday in trying to hold a pair of mules frightened by thunder and lightning, and was knocked out of his senses for a short while. He recovered, however, in an hour or two and was not otherwise injured. He is now in his usual good health.

Cushman Quarrier, controller of the L. & N. rt Louisville, gives the following comparative statement of gross earnings: Third week of April, 1896, $348,356; 1895, $317,005; 1894, $317,189; 1893, $302,180. Three weeks of April, 1896, $1,045,915; 1895, $990,650; 1894, $1,010,050; 1893, $1,177,505. July let to April let, 1896, $16,641,545; 1895, $15,738,075; 1894, $15,300,395; 1893, $15,840,180.

Don't Beating in Hopkinsville.

St. Louis, Mo., April.—A local paper prints this: "Dr. W. E. Clark, of Hopkinsville, Ky., asked the assistance of the Health Department Tuesday in his search for a wayward young woman from DeKoven, Ky., who had run away from her home and was thought to be leading an immoral life."

The girl was located at Second and LaSalle streets by the police and taken by the Health officials to the City Hospital to await the birth of her child. Dr. Clark says the girl's name is Cordia Mitchell, and that she is of a good family at DeKoven, Ky. She was betrayed by a young man there, and about three months ago ran away to this city.

"Her father, Mr. J. S. Mitchell, asked Dr. Clark to come to St. Louis and find the girl and do what he could for her."

Mr. Pettit's Condition.

Mr. Thos. S. Pettit's condition is far more serious than many of his friends are aware. In conjunction with the broken limb, he is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever and has been delirious for the most part since meeting with the accident just four weeks ago yesterday. It is thought that he was threatened with the fever before the accident, as he was heard to complain of the symptoms which characterize that disease for several days prior to the mishap and that has only served to hasten the disease, and add to its severity. He at times refuses all nourishment, which has served to weaken him very much and cause great anxiety for his recovery. He was resting a little easier yesterday, slept some and took some nourishment, but he is a very sick man—Owensboro Messenger.

New Woman in a New Role.

Richmond, Ky., April 29.—In this section the field of woman's usefulness is wide, and the old notion that her place is in the kitchen is being dispelled. This county has a colored woman who is a brick and stone mason by trade and is an expert in that line. The county comes to the front again with another new woman: Mrs. Rhoda Cox, of the Paloma section. A few days since she wanted her sheep sheared, and finding no man who would do the work, went to the sheep sheds and performed the work herself. The job was neatly done. The sheep were soon separated from the flock. Mrs. Cox is seventy-seven years old and active, hale and hearty.

To be Settled May 6.

The question of issuing a 5,000-mile railroad ticket having gone to the general managers of the association lines is very likely to be adopted, but with such safe-guarding thrown around it as to prevent its being traded on except by the purchaser of the ticket. The question will be settled between May 6 and May 10. Traveling men are much interested in the result, and are purchasing mileage only to meet their immediate requirements.

A Heavy Assignment.

Russellville, April 27.—John I. Ferguson, of Ferguson, Ky., this county, made an assignment this morning to the Deposit bank of this place. Liabilities will amount to about $50,000, assets estimated at $45,000.

What's the Matter With Hams?

Mr. Liberty, Ky., April 27.—Hon. Jeff Hamish has announced his candidacy for Congress from the tenth district. He is one of the leading democrats in this section and is admitted on all sides that he will make a formidable race.

CREAM OF NEWS.

IF IT IS NEW AND TRUE THIS COLUMN HAS IT.

Army Worms—Prisoner Escapes—Pennyrite League—Little Boy Hurt—Killed by Lightning—Arrested—Fire—Meeting.

An Official Investigation.

The following item from Frankfort appeared in the Times of Wednesday: "Mr. C. W. Lester, the State Inspector and Examiner, after a long consultation with the Governor, left this morning for Hopkinsville. He and the executive are secretive about the character of his mission there, but it is known that the inspector goes to investigate the muddle among the asylum employees and officials. This affair is said to be much more serious than has ever been given out."

Mr. Lester arrived here yesterday and has asked President Knight to call a meeting of the Asylum Commissioners this morning. He proposes to make a thorough investigation of all damaging reports. The female attendants whose presence in the Asylum was objectionable have resigned and left. Also the following other attendants have quit: J. H. Hoffman, D. P. Thompson, J. H. Hoffman, D. E. Pierce, J. L. Barnett, Misses Jennie Ditto, Ella Gibbs, Vic Chester, Nellie Caldwell and drug-gist W. H. Kordlander.

"Shuffled Off This Mortal Coil."

Burford McKnight, col., who was pardoned out of the Edwylle penitentiary two months ago by the Governor, as will be remembered by the readers of the Kentuckian, died of consumption, Tuesday, at his home near Beverly, aged 30 years. McKnight was sent to the pen in June, '94, for three years for stealing a watch from Major Woodbridge, but owing to ill health was released from prison.

Young Farmer Takes Away.

Samuel Johnson died quite suddenly near Guthrie a few days ago. Mr. Johnson was a very successful farmer and was well known in this city. He had been in bad health for several months, but his friends were not aware that his malady had assumed a fatal form until a few moments before his demise. He was a member of the Christian church and the impressive ceremonies of that order.

Measles Epidemic.

For several weeks there has been an epidemic of measles in the city and the disease shows no signs of abatement. The attendance at the public schools has been seriously interfered with. The disease is not a very malignant character and runs its course in about a week. There have been no deaths from it as far as we have heard.

Work Stock Killed.

Herndon, April 30, 1896.—During the very heavy thunder storm which occurred last Sunday afternoon, Mr. J. R. Stigall had two of his work stock killed by lightning—one a very fine young mule, the other a good farm horse. Mr. Stigall will feel his loss very much as they were his only dependence for stock to cultivate his crop.

Meeting at the Christian Church.

Eld. J. M. Mitchell, pastor of the Christian church, will begin a protracted meeting at the Christian church to-night. He will in a day or two be assisted by Eld. Jno. Sweeney, of Paris, Ky., and the meeting will continue as long as the interest justifies. Eld. Sweeney is said to be an able pulpit orator, of unusual eloquence and earnestness.

Little Boy Badly Hurt.

Herman Ennis, the 12-year-old son of Mr. W. D. Ennis, was thrown from a pony Tuesday afternoon and badly hurt. The little fellow fell on a pile of rocks and his left arm was broken and he sustained numerous bruises, but physicians are of the opinion that he escaped internal injuries.

First of the Season.

Ripe strawberries were picked from Mr. Thos. W. Long's garden on South Main street Wednesday, the 29th inst., and by Sunday the whole crop will be ripening. This is the earliest ever reported here, the usual time for early varieties being about May 10. Mr. Long does not remember the name of the variety.

Mr. McKenzie Improving.

Oak Grove, April 30.—Mr. W. A. McKenzie, who shot himself accidentally in the foot last Monday, is getting along quite nicely and his physicians are of the opinion that he will be able to save the foot, with probably the loss of one or two toes.

The Pennyrite League Meeting.

A meeting of the Pennyrite League was held in this city Wednesday, the following clubs being represented: Owensboro, by Edward Gans, of Louisville; Russellville, by Thos. Rhea; Nashville, by Allan Fox; Henderson, by G. S. Lawrence; Hopkinsville, by H. H. Abernathy, and Madisonville by J. B. Galbreath, who held their proxy. The former formal organization of the league was merged into a new one, with Edward Gans, President, and J. B. Galbreath, Secretary. It was agreed to admit Nashville and Russellville into the league. A schedule committee, composed of Messrs. Gans and Fox, was appointed and are now busy at work arranging the dates for the season and will make a report to the Secretary here next Monday. Regular league rules were also agreed upon to govern the games. The season proper opens Monday, May 11. Where the Hopkinsville team will begin the season has not yet been agreed upon. The Hopkinsville boys are in excellent trim and will no doubt make it lively competition when the season opens. Our club last season won a large per cent. of the games played and it is believed that we have a much stronger aggregation for this year's report and it is safe to say that all the games to be played at Athletic Park in this city, will be well attended.

Caught a Tartar.

Deputy Sheriff Rolt, Davis arrested Henry Gaither, col., at Greedy, Wednesday, on a warrant charging grand larceny. He was brought to this city and being unable to give bond, was put in jail. Gaither is accused of stealing a pistol. After being placed behind the bars the prisoner talked freely to Jailer Williamson and if his statements are facts he has been leading a pretty wild life for some time. Gaither says he is a "crack crack shooter," and on a recent occasion when he shot the stalks and his opponent secured the money he drew his pistol and fired two shots at him, one shot of which his friends avoid. He admits having been figured in other crimes and it would appear from his story that he is a very bad man. His examining trial will be held before Judge Breathitt May 5.

Fined Twenty-Five Dollars.

Wm. Yates, col., was fined $25 in Judge Breathitt's court Wednesday on a charge of unlawfully taking the property of another. He was arrested on a charge of petit larceny and when he was taken to the jail he was held over and sent to jail. As he failed to give bond and was anxious to have his trial at once he was taken before the County Judge where the charge was changed as above stated and the case disposed of. He satisfied the claim and was released. The ownership of a razor caused the trouble, the parties concerned on both sides being barbers.

Work House Prisoner Escapes.

T. S. Rhodes, a white prisoner, escaped from the work house yesterday morning and up to the hour of going to the jail, he was not captured. Shortly after his escape he was seen going in the direction of Fairview. About a month ago Rhodes was convicted of burglary and sentenced to 60 days in the work house. He only had six more days to serve before his sentence would have been completed.

Presbytery at Princeton.

The Louisville Presbytery is in session at Princeton, Tenn., organized by electing H. S. Irwin, of Louisville, Moderator, being the first ever elected as Moderator of the Presbytery. The service Wednesday was devoted to miscellaneous business, devotional service and a talk on practical work by the Rev. W. E. Brice. Rev. S. N. Vail and others from this city are in attendance.

Dr. Miller Takes the Oath.

Dr. F. A. Miller, the newly appointed First Assistant physician at the asylum, took the oath of office prescribed by law, Wednesday, and has entered upon his duties at the institution. He will move his family from Owensboro here in a few days.

Pembroke People Pleas.

A large lot of the young folks from the Pembroke neighborhood went to Pilot Rock yesterday and enjoyed a picnic in the woods. There were 400 in the party and they had a very pleasant time.

Lost a Cabin by Fire.

It is reported with seeming truth that Gomez, the Cuban general who has been reported so sick, has really sold out to the Spanish and deserted from the patriot army. Discussing the matter, a Washington correspondent says: While the Cubans here are not willing to confirm or deny the story of Gomez' treachery, they admit that it is "not improbable," and some of the Cuban residents of Washington hope that it is true, declaring it is the best thing that could possibly happen for the benefit of the revolutionary cause. If Macao also would clear out and take with him Roloff, the secretary of war of the provisional government, and half a dozen or more other allies of despotic characters, it would be a grand thing for Cuban liberty and would undoubtedly bring to the support of the cause a thousand good men for every rascal that deserted. Gomez is a full blooded negro and Macao is a mulatto, facts that have greatly hampered the Cuban cause.

The friends of the late Judge Grace will remember with grateful feelings that it was Henderson county that broke the long deadlock at Princeton and cast the 11 votes that gave Judge Grace the bare majority by which he was nominated. The counties of his district now have an opportunity to show their appreciation of what Henderson did for them by supporting Henderson's candidate, Judge Yeaman, in the present contest. In this county especially, where Judge Grace is held in loving remembrance, this is a strong issue in the race now in progress.

Michigan is an accession to the free silver ranks which, though hoped for, was hardly expected. It demonstrates that the leaven is working everywhere, and throws a grotesque light upon the oft-repeated assertions about the waning of the "silver craze." Wisconsin and Minnesota are the only Northwestern States that are likely to be in line with the John Sherman faction of the Democratic party at Chicago.—Post Dispatch.

The bond money Democrats had a conference in Louisville Wednesday to discuss plans for organization. The meeting was called by Mr. Wilbur F. Browder, who refused to support Hardin for Governor and Moore for State Senator last year, because they declined to change their views as free coinage Democrats. The Park City Times very pertinently says in this connection:

"Democrats who agree with Mr. Browder on the financial question will hesitate before they enlist under his leadership, not knowing where he will take them."

Shelby county, in which Memphis is situated, went for the single gold standard in a primary election, in which about 3000 votes were polled. This is about the only important county in Tennessee that has been captured by the goldbugs so far, and the indications are that the district of which it is a part will elect silver delegates to Chicago next week.

The gold standard people are about ready to admit that the South will be practically sold for silver. Their only hope is to divide Kentucky and pick up a delegate or two in Virginia, West Virginia, Louisiana and Tennessee. Maryland will not be contested by the goldbugs. This is conceded to the monometallists.

About 40 bond money advocates met in Louisville Wednesday and a meeting was held, over which Mr. R. T. Tyler presided. A large proportion of the present bolted the Democratic ticket last year and at least three of the ten members of the address committee have a public record as bolters of party nominees. The following were named as a committee to prepare an address: Henry Burnett, Cromwell Adair, W. A. Wickliffe, S. B. Buckner, Jas. P. Helm, R. H. Elliott, Jas. A. Fiolet, Yoder Poignant, Joo F. Hager and John P. Salyer.

A meeting of the State Central Committee was held in Louisville Wednesday and it is announced that the differences between Chairman Long and the majority of the Committee have been amicably settled. Mr. Long agreeing "to adjust all complaints without further trouble."

Walker Kennedy has been appointed editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, to succeed E. W. Carmack. The paper will continue for silver, but will not oppose Josiah Patterson for Congress.

The Louisville Commercial is very hard to please when it comes to Democratic affairs. It objects to the date for the Democratic primaries, because May 30 is memorial day and a National holiday.

M. Melnie has succeeded in forming a new French Cabinet with himself as Premier. It is to be hoped that M. Melnie was not pulled before he was ripe.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good they possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

What is shrouded in mystery?

This question is so often asked and as the product is quite new, some explanation is necessary. The wheat is first washed thereby denuding it of its rough outer coat, then boiled over fire, after which it goes through the shredding machine and comes out in the form of the biscuits seen in our stores. They are then baked in an oven and evaporated to extreme dryness—this latter to insure keeping qualities, as it is claimed that in twelve months they will be as fresh as to-day. This of course took too long to use, and it is necessary they be eaten before using. They are mechanically light without the use of fermentation of any kind. Nothing added to the wheat but a little salt and nothing taken from it, so that it contains all the elements of nutrition, which is many times that of superfine flour, and is about the right proportion, making it a very desirable food for either the sick or the well.

The fact that few or no slaves ever died of consumption, or were insane tells volumes of the effect of a hearty diet of bacon and unboiled corn meal.

An attractively seasonable flavor pervades The Ladies' Home Journal for May, the rich bounties of spring being presented in poetry, in prose and in picture. Among the more conspicuous features in this direction is a drawing by W. Hamilton Gibson, illustrating Frank Dempster Sherman's poem, "God's Miracle of May."

Harry Stowe, a little son of Mr. E. A. Stowe, of Jullien, had his arm broken by a fall from a bicycle Monday afternoon. He collided with a large wheel. A young boy was crossing the street in front of him. The little named boy was not hurt, except a few bruises. Young Stowe is a pupil in Maj. Ferrell's school.

WOMEN AS WAITRESSES.

In Cap and Apron They Now Attend the Fashionable Table.

And now even the time-honored waitersman must tremble in his shoes, for the waiterswoman is at hand, says the Philadelphia Record. Already progressive caterers are sending announcements that they will supply neat, capable waitresses for all social functions and women's teas, feminine luncheons and stylish female card parties. In the comforting consciousness that "there isn't a man around anywhere." The newcomers are clad in black alpaca gowns, covered with dainty white aprons, and on their hands they wear the conventional cap. Their hands have so far been innocent of gloves, for which long-suffering society may breathe a sigh of relief; did anyone, by the way, ever come across a man waiter whose gloves fitted him? If so let the day be marked with a white stone.

The waitresses, of course, are more or less comely; they are expected to be neat and amiable, and it is whispered that even the woman with the newest of gowns can dine in serene placidity without even an unbecoming dream of possible upsets.

Most of the new waitresses are colored, but a word to the wise is sufficient, and the first blinks of the innovation set wideawake people to recalling the good old times when pretty waiter girls made life a merry thing to chance travelers at Eurythmics. Visions of She Stoops to Conquer fit seductively through the mind, and in the presence of the possible revival of so good a custom the waitersman (alas) in his ill-fitting coarseness and his awful pomposity makes us wonder why we never thought of waiter girls before. It is an experiment as yet, but it has its attractions. It remains to be seen whether it shall be a success. One thing, however, may comfort the supplanted hero of the dining table. It is scarcely probable that one woman in a thousand can ever learn to balance on an outspread palm a tray containing enough dishes to supply a small store.

AT TWENTY-SEVEN.

How George Washington Looked in His Early Manhood.

At the time of his marriage (when in his 27th year) Washington was in the prime of his magnificent physical manhood, writes Gen. A. W. Greely, U. S. A., in Ladies' Home Journal. Fortunately, contemporaneous sources do not leave the description of his person to our imagination. Such was already his excited standing that these portraits omit entirely, or modify, what might be thought to be defects, as, for instance, the disfiguring facial marks, from smallpox. Straight as an Indian, with limbs as tall almost as a giant mold (he was six feet three inches tall at the time of his death), his self-contained countenance, agreeable speech and dignified bearing made his personality most impressive. Probably half of his time at home was spent in the saddle, and this active out-of-door life gave him a glow of health and sense of vigor. We learn from his intimate friend, George Mercer, interesting details. His skin was clear and colorless, the nose straight; the face long, with light round cheekbones; the blue-gray and widely separated eyes shadowed by heavy brows; a large, mobile mouth, showing teeth somewhat defective; the muscular arms and legs unusually long, and a well-shaped head, gracefully poised on a superb neck. The brown hair was worn in a queue, and the small waist well set off by neatly fitting garb.

GATHER THEM IN.

"The Christian Endeavor Local Union of Hopkinsville, Ky., has been busy for some time past in gathering up for Christ and the church. Its latest endeavor is one of far-reaching influence, and a good example of loyalty to the individual church. Its work has been nothing less than a house-to-house canvass of the entire city by the Christian Endeavorers. The town was divided into districts, and the task of visiting every home was assigned to selected workers.

The object was to find out what persons are not in the habit of attending church or Sunday school, and to give to all such a direct and personal invitation to these services. These invitations thus given are to be followed up until the persons are brought under the influence of the church. The information gathered by this religious census will be classified and given to the ministers of the various churches. The visiting has the approval of a Christian people, and was a complete success.

The work proved to the Endeavorers how ready and willing persons are to accept religious suasion, and how much they appreciate a personal interest in their spiritual welfare. The claims of the home-mission field, so near to home as one's next-door neighbor, were forced strongly upon the hearts of the Christian Endeavorers, and the lessons they have learned in this school of experience will not soon be forgotten or neglected.

A unique and practical Christian Endeavor is that undertaken by two young women, Christian Endeavorers of a Maine City. They have gone to live in the slums of the city, earning their own living and by precept and example inculcating lessons of thrift, economy and religion among their neighbors.

Two reading rooms for sailors are supported at Port Richmond and Point Breeze by Philadelphia Christian Endeavorers.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR COLUMN.

Nomination and Future Work.

The State President has appointed a committee for nominations and future work for the State during the coming year, to report at the State Convention at Paducah. The following persons compose the committee: Mr. W. S. Waller, Louisville; Mr. A. J. Arick, Mt. Sterling; Miss Anne Wyatt, Mayslick; Miss Alice Bergin, Bergin; Mr. David Flournoy, Paducah; Mr. J. S. Kendrick, Danville; Miss Jennie L. Glass, Hopkinsville. The duties of the committee, as outlined by President Ellis, are to select candidates for the offices of President, Secretary, Treasurer, Assistant-Secretary, Junior Superintendent, and Vice President for each denomination represented in Endeavor work in the State; also Chairman of the Districting and Extension, Good Citizenship, Missionary and Look-out Committee; further, to recommend such work as may be considered best for the coming year in the opinion of the committee.

Value will realize the importance of this committee, for upon it devolves the responsibility of selecting those for officers who will lead the most energetic and influential in the cause, and of outlining the wisest plans for extending the work.

If any of the Societies can offer suggestions, either in regard to plans for future work, or send names of those they would like to hold offices in the State, the suggestions will be gratefully received and carefully considered. The committee desires to make a report that will be of some practical value to the incoming Executive Committee.

As we hate to be sounding our own praises all the time we let the Golden Rule—the cry of the United Societies—let it for us in the following article taken from a recent number of that paper:

The information gathered by this religious census will be classified and given to the ministers of the various churches. The visiting has the approval of a Christian people, and was a complete success.

The work proved to the Endeavorers how ready and willing persons are to accept religious suasion, and how much they appreciate a personal interest in their spiritual welfare. The claims of the home-mission field, so near to home as one's next-door neighbor, were forced strongly upon the hearts of the Christian Endeavorers, and the lessons they have learned in this school of experience will not soon be forgotten or neglected.

A unique and practical Christian Endeavor is that undertaken by two young women, Christian Endeavorers of a Maine City. They have gone to live in the slums of the city, earning their own living and by precept and example inculcating lessons of thrift, economy and religion among their neighbors.

Two reading rooms for sailors are supported at Port Richmond and Point Breeze by Philadelphia Christian Endeavorers.

The Detroit & Cleveland Steam Nav. Co.

Scribner's Magazine of May opens with the most intimate account of Robert Louis Stevenson in his home-life that has ever been published. This is the first of two papers by Mrs. Neil At Strong (his step-daughter and amanuensis) which are to be published under the title of "Veil and Table-Talk." From time to time while acting as Stevenson's secretary Mrs. Strong put down bits of conversation, characteristic epigram, a jest, or serious talk, just as they occurred. These papers are therefore the authentic record of Stevenson's every-day life by one who had his confidence. The papers are illustrated with photographs in the family album which give an equally veracious portrait of the family life and travels. Many of the anecdotes will pass into Stevenson's history, and an additional charm is given to the first paper by two poems of more than 100 lines which never before have been published.

This is the second trial of this suit. In the former case she was given $18,000 damages. Gov. Brown was one of her attorneys this time.

Editor E. W. Carmack, probably the brightest star in southern journalism, has resigned the editorship of the Memphis Commercial Appeal. The reason is said to be that he was unwilling to pursue the policy of non-interference with the candidacy of Congressman Joseph Patterson for reelection as urged by the controlling influence of the paper.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal announces the marriage of Rev. Martin D. Hardin to Miss Julia Stevenson, eldest daughter of the Vice-President, to take place in Washington on May 28. Mr. and Mrs. Hardin will live in this city their home for the summer and in the fall they will go to Edinburgh, Scotland, where Mr. Hardin will take a six months course in university.—Bowling Green Times.

The testimony for the Commonwealth in the trial of Scott Jackson for the murder of Pearl Bryan was closed yesterday afternoon, several witnesses having been examined.

Mrs. Sarah Seither testified that she met Jackson and Walling on the day before the murder about a mile from Newport on the Alexandria pike. Judge Helm promptly overruled a motion by the defense for peremptory instructions.

ELEPHANTS AS BOWLERS.

A Very Remarkable Show Seen in Berlin at the Winter Garden.

A phenomenal achievement in animal training must be credited to the experts of the Berlin winter garden, where large crowds are privileged to witness every night an interesting game of ten pins played by elephants.

The antics of the dumb players provoke hilarious laughter. The champion roller thus far is Boris's favorite elephant upon whom the pibelman name of Anton was imposed some two years ago, when he became a German citizen. His score sometimes reaches 200, which is not often beaten by human players. His keeper talks of matching him with bowling experts for the world's championship.

The ball is of course manipulated by the trunk, with which the elephant seems to be able to pitch with wonderful dexterity. Two elephants, "the boys," are stationed near the ten pins, at the lower end of the alley. They throw the balls back through the chute as soon as the marker has chalked the score on the blackboard. Another thick-skinned "boy" replaces the pins in order. The latter is careful not to touch the pins until the marker has done his work.

Anton very often makes a "strike" when his turn comes; that is, he knocks all the pins down on the first roll. The other players feel happy when they can make a "spare."

The trainers have great difficulty in making the elephants give up their position so long as any pins are left standing. They will stand and stamp near the chute, clamoring for more balls with which to knock down the standing pins. It is hard to drive the all absorbing thought from their minds that the aim of the game is to keep rolling until all the pins have been thrown over.

The keepers, on the other hand, are bent on teaching them how to roll with effect during the two chances allowed them.

In case of a miss the throwers feel disappointment fully as keenly as the audience.

There is much jealousy between the players, and all feel sore toward Anton, who seems not to care as he is a big fellow and knows that he can lick the crowd. While the others are throwing he walks over to Miss Begum, a female rhinoceros, whose pen adjoins the bowling alley. The courtship between these two brutes seems to afford as much pleasure to the visitors as the bowling game.

Miss Begum has a habit of standing perfectly motionless for hours at a time, but as soon as Anton swings his trunk over the six-foot fence there is a languid turn of the bulky head and a noticeable recognition in the little "piggy" eyes.

It requires great winking and squinting and trunk cooing on the part of Anton to induce much response from the phlegmatic rhinoceros, who, however, finally succumbs to the proboscis influence.

After the courting Anton seems much encouraged, especially so long as Miss Begum remains an interested spectator.

Will Carleton's Mother.

Mrs. Celeste E. Carleton, mother of Will Carleton, the poet died recently at his home in Brooklyn. She was born at Castle, N. Y., September 5, 1815, and spent her girlhood among the hills and valleys of the Alleghenies. In 1833, she married a young New Englander, John Carleton, who went westward to seek his fortune. In the wilderness of Michigan they found a home, where her husband died in 1872. In that forest environment her adventures were many and varied. For Michigan was that time a frontier state. She was a woman of rare spirit and resolution, learned early the use of firearms, and was her husband's stay and support during all his weary task of making his portion of the wilderness blossom. Six children were born to them, all of whom are dead excepting the youngest, Will, with whom she had during the last 14 years of her life.

She was sometimes induced to recount her early adventures in the forest country, and they have been the inspiration of some of Will Carleton's frontier poems.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Searchlights as Riot Quellers.

The electric searchlight was used recently to put down a riot in Lancashire, England. A manufacturer, whose men had struck, was determined to keep his mill going, and he promptly secured new hands and set them to work. At the same time he fired a searchlight on the factory building, to prevent the strikers from setting fire to the sheds erected for the new hands. During the continuance of the strike this light was used nightly, in conjunction with the police established in the works, to scour the country and to illuminate the parts where pickets were placed. It was found so effective that a large number of temporary police were dispensed with.

—Russia, whose calendar is 12 days behind ours, proposes to change to the Gregorian calendar after the beginning of the new century. The authorities have not yet decided whether to jump over the 13 days at once, or to accomplish their object gradually by omitting the first 12 leap years of the century. It would then require 48 years to bring about the change.

—Prince Scipione Borghese, having married a rich wife last year, is about to buy back for 1,700,000 francs the Palazzo Borghese in Rome, which his father was obliged to sell a few years ago in consequence of the failure of his speculations in Roman real estate. TOBACCO NEWS.

HOPKINSVILLE MARKET.
(Reported by J. H. Engleton, of Alfred Lewis
& Co., Leaf Dealers.)

The offerings on Tuesday were composed very largely of reviews and non-descript tobacco, hence the prices were somewhat unsatisfactory to the sellers. On Wednesday the offerings were very much better and prices went up about the same, while at the same time there was not the soap in the bidding as was shown last week.
The highest price this week was $14.00, while it was supposed that some of the offerings were equally as good as the week before, some of the best judges, as a rule, will differ in value as it is altogether a matter of fancy when it comes to price.
Medium to good lugs were from 4c to 1c higher this week.

Medium leaf was somewhat stronger.
The demand is good for all grades on sale, while the prices apparently look low on some of the low leaf and non-descript kinds. But when you take the quality, condition and the large proportion of the crop that will come under this head, in consideration the price is not so low as might be expected.

It is to be hoped that all of the farmers will see what the markets are doing with common trash tobacco and will quit raising trash and raise good tobacco, which will always sell for its full value and pay the farmer well for his labor. Our receipts are so large this week that local democracy will have to continue the sales for four or five days in each week. The farmers report everything very favorable for another setting this year.
